

Face Productions and amelia johnson contemporary

2008 Open Submission Exhibition

(For artists aged 6 years and above)

Talented young artists, aged six to 16 are invited to enter the world of professional artists by submitting their artwork for our 2008 Open Submission Exhibition at amelia johnson contemporary, one of Hong Kong's leading contemporary art galleries, during June 2008.

Student artists will be given the opportunity of putting a price on their artwork and maybe even making a sale! The artist will receive 50% of the selling price and the remaining 50% will be donated to support children's with diabetes in Hong Kong.

What a wonderful way to see your art in a professional setting, make some money and also help others in the process!

Criteria:

- Students must be six to 16 years older when they created the artwork
- Both two-dimensional and three-dimensional work will be accepted
- A maximum of two entries per artist is allowed
- The artwork should be in good condition (weathered and damaged work will not be accepted)
- All application forms must be completed clearly and attached securely to the artwork. If you wish to submit a second artwork, please attach another form to it
- The application forms must be completed clearly and attached securely to the artwork. If you wish to submit a second artwork, please attach another form to it
- Original artwork should be delivered to Kids' Gallery, Central, Hong Kong or Kowloon Tong on or before Wednesday 30 April 2008. If you cannot deliver the artwork before this date and still wish for your work to be considered, please inform us on or before 30 April.
- If you feel that you would be upset if your work was not selected on this occasion, please reconsider your submission. Also remember, that if your artwork is sold you will no longer own it!
